HON. DR. J. L. ROBINSON, PROVINCIAL MINISTER INDUSTRIES AND LABOR DIES

HON. DR. J. L. ROBINSON

Hon. Dr. J. L. Robinson, 63, one of the original members of the Social Credit movement in Alberta, a member of the legislature since 1935, and minister of industries and labor since 1948, died in an Edmonton hospital on Thursday last.

Dr. Robinson represented the Medicine Hat constituency where he practised as a chiropractor.

He had served as chairman of legislative committees on workmen's compensation before his [illegible] appointment, and had been chairman of the research Council [illegible] was also head of the Alberta Power Commission.

Born in Belfast, Ireland, Dr. Robinson came to Canada in 1913. He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. John Beaton and a grandson.

Hon. C. E. Gerhart, who is provincial secretary and minister of municipal affairs, will be acting minister of industries and labor until a successor to Dr. Robinson is appointed.

A by-lection to fill the Medicine Hat seat will be held before February. A vacancy in a single-member riding means that a by-election must be called within 180 days, or earlier if a legislative session is to be held before expiration of that time.

Fall Wedding Unites Grassland Couple

A beautiful wedding took place at Grassland Holy Trinity Church on October 15th, when Don Corse was married to Olga Chwedoruk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chwedoruk of Craig End.

The bride wore a net with lace floor-length gown with a full-length veil, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. She was attended by a flower girl, Sharon Corse, and three bridesmaids, Mary Chwedoruk, Josephine Nowicki and Rose Pankar. Best men were Lester Corse, Joe Chwedoruk and Paul Wowk. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Douglas A. Greenough, United Church minister at La Biche and wedding music was [illegible] by Mr. McNeil.

For the occasion Mrs. Chwedoruk wore a navy dress with a corsage of yellow roses pinned at her shoulder. The groom's mother chose a light brown dress and also wore a corsage of yellow roses.

A large crowd attended the reception and dance and a good time was had by all.

Hospital Pupils Enjoy Gay Hallowe'en Parties

PLAMONDON—The classes from grade one to grade seven of the Plamondon school all had very nice Hallowe'en parties on Friday. Each of the pupils took cakes, cookies, apples or candies, which was put together in a large basket and passed around to each child. Hallowe'en pictures, drawn by the pupils, decorated the classrooms. Games were played, such as "Pin the tail on the donkey," only it was a big black cat instead.

The teachers, Mrs. Laura Cheyigny, Miss Anne Blonski, Sr. Solange, Mr. Paul Piquette, Mr. Armand Beaudouin and Mr. Arthur Girard, are to be commended for organizing a party for their class rooms.

Fire Brigade To Appoint Members As Fire Police

LAC LA BICHE — At the last meeting of the Volunteer Fire Brigade it was decided to appoint certain members as fire police. These men will wear an arm band with red lettering "FP", and will be commissioned by the Fire Commissioner of Alberta to prevent obstruction around a fire. This personnel will have full authority at the scene of a fire for directing traffice and keeping general order. They will direct pedestrians and prevent any looting of properties during a fire. The public are asked to make note of this and to cooperate to their fullest extent and obey any requests from the fire police.

Fireman L. Vincent has been appointed as the secretary-treasurer, replacing Fireman R. Rudiger, and a new first aid kit for the fire truck is being taken care of by Captain John Zalusny.

During the meeting, Const. Gordon Kennedy, RCMP, gave another of his well defined lectures on traffic control. These lectures are designated to help the firemen direct traffic in case of a fire. Const. Kennedy used the by-laws of the province of Alberta and the Town of Lac la Biche as the basis for his lectures. The brigade will welcome more of his talks and are thankful for an opportunity to learn the rules and regulations.

A chimney fire call was answered at the home of Dan Joncas, and it took about 15 minutes before the all clear signal sounded.

Farmers Can Still Borrow Money At Banks On Grain In Storage

J. Harper Prowse, Alberta Liberal leader, commented last week on the request of farm leaders to have the federal government make loans on grain in storage on farms. "Farmers can now borrow money," Mr. Prowse said, "on grain which is stored on their own farms." He continued, "A recent amendment passed by the federal government known as Section 88 of the Bank Act, reads as follows: 'The bank may lend money and make advances to any farmer upon the security of threshed grain grown upon the farm'."

While it is probable that the bank would require that the grain be adequately housed against the weather, Mr. Prowse points out that in the event that the farmer does not have proper storage, he may borrow up to $4,000 through the Farm Improvement Loan Act to build granaries or storage bins.

The Retail Merchants Association of Canada (Alberta) Inc., announced last week that they were recommending that merchants advise the farm trade to obtain such bank loans to pay its commitments.

To Carry Canadian Air Travellers For TCA

THE VICKERS VISCOUNT AIRLINER completed the recent 12,270-mile London to Christchurch, New Zealand air race in 40 hours, 40 minutes and 26 seconds — more than nine hours ahead of the craft that won the race through a handicap allowance. Trans-Canada Airlines has purchased 15 of these turbo-prop airliners at a cost of about $12,000,000, with delivery scheduled in 1954. L. J-B. Forbes, Canadian representative of Vickers Ltd., England, has announced that the company will open a technical service and information office in Canada early next year. It will be located in Montreal or Winnipeg.

126 Mink On Display As Fur Farmers Attend Field Day

The Lac la Biche and Plamondon Fur Farmers' Association held their annual Field Day on Friday, October 30. The first snow fall of the season somewhat spoiled the attendance. There were 126 mink on display and Mr. Levine of Edmonton Fur Auctions did a very fine job of judging. Prizes and ribbons were won by the following:

Snow white mink, male: 1st prize Paul Sampeitro; 2nd prize N. Hrynik, Plamondon; 3rd prize E. Pederson.

Saphire Males: 1st H. Nelsen, 2nd Hogan Bros.; 3rd Wm. Hamilton.

Saphire females: 1st M. Maskalyk; 2nd Hogan Bros.; 3rd Wm. Hamilton.

Breath of Spring, male and female: 1st H. Cramer; 2nd F. Nashim; 3rd E. Pedersen.

Breath of Spring, Blue: 1st O. Fyith; 2nd Wm. Hamilton; 3rd H. Cramer.

Silver Blue Male: 1st H. Cramer; 2nd Wm. Hamilton, 3rd P. Yaggy.

Silver Blue Female: 1st H. Cramer, 2nd Wm. Hamilton.

Pastel Males: 1st Mrs. Wight, 2nd E. Jones, 3rd Hogan Bros.

Stewart Pastel: 1st P. Sampeitro.

Pastel Females: 1st P. Sampeitro, 2nd Paul Sampeitro, 3rd Hogan Bros.

Standard Males: M. Maskalyk took the first, second and third prizes in this classification.

Standard Females: 1st and 2nd E. Jones, 3rd M. Maskalyk.

Aleutian Males: 1st and 2nd E. Jones, 3rd E. Pedersen.

Aleutian Females: 1st and 2nd E. Jones, 3rd E. Pedersen.

Arctic B. of S.: H. Cramer, 2nd E. Pedersen, 3rd H. Cramer.

The Silver Cups were awarded to: The Hogan Bros. for the best pair of mink; to H. Cramer for the Best Silver Blue Mink, and to M. Maskalyk for the Best Standard Female Mink.

Mr. E. Jones received the silver cup donated by Courtney's Barber Shop for the best Aleutian.

One gallon of Anti-freeze from the Lakeside Motors went to Mrs. Wight for the best Pastel.

Two gallons of Anti-freeze from I.H.C., Wm. Hamilton, was given to M. Maskalyk for the best Saphire.

The luncheon set donated by Michael Hamar was awarded to Paul Sampeitro for the best White.

The man's wool shirt from Robinson stores went to H. Cramer for the best Blue, and the blanket donated by the Hudson Bay Co. was awarded to E. Jones for the best mink in the show.

In the evening a program was held at the Dr. Swift School with Dr. Ballantyne, Don Frazer, John Kokolsky and Mr. Horne as guest speakers. Dr. Ballantyne lectured and showed slides on rabies and different diseases of mink and how to combat them. Mr. Kokolsky talked on organization and co-operative associations and the mink show to be held in Edmonton during November 18-20.

Among various subjects Mr. Horne spoke on the breeding of mink and the advisability of organizing the Fur Growers Association to assist in advertising and consequently better selling.

The evening session was somewhat disappointing to the above mentioned gentlemen, as so few of the fur farmers were present to hear the intresting talks and to see the pictures. These men have gone to a great deal of trouble to put on this show and give these lectures, and the farmers who did not attend certainly missed an educational evening. It is hoped that next year a great many more will avail themselves of this service and show their appreciation to the associates by turning out in a greater number.

Injured Man Brought To Edmonton

GRASSLAND — John Kolwich was seriously injured Thursday while working around Bennett & Kiddine's cat on the farm of Anton Hewko near Sarrail. Felix Hewko rushed the injured man to Lac La Biche, but doctors there ordered him to an Edmonton hospital. Owing to the snow storm in Edmonton, no plane was available and the unfortunate man, said to be suffering from a fractured skull, had to be taken on the long trip by car. It was unfortunate that there was no nurse at Grassland to render first aid. The accident was said to have been caused by a bar getting caught in the machinery.

Government Starts Work On Budget

EDMONTON—(BUP) — Alberta Treasury department officials have announced that preparations are being made on the government estimates of expenditures and revenues for the coming year.

The last session approved estimated expenditures of over $174,000,000 for the 1953-54 fiscal year, while revenue is expected to exceed $138,300,000.

The department estimates will be studied first by deputy provincial treasurer K. J. Hawkins, before final perusal by Premier E. C. Manning, acting as treasurer. Manning will read the estimates in consultation with the departmental ministers and officials.

Some $6,000,000 worth of zippers are made each year in Canada.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS about Cancer

QUESTION: Can a physician always tell when he has removed all the cancer?
ANSWER: The only way to tell if all cancer cells have been removed is to wait and see if the growth reappears. If a patient goes for five or more years after treatment, without recurrence, there is but small chance of recurrence later in life.

$1 for Favorite RECIPE

TROPICAROMA CAKE

2 eggs
½ cup shortening
1¼ cups sugar
2¼ cups flour
1 cup sweet milk
¼ teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg

Cream shortening, add sugar and beaten eggs. Mix well, now sift in dry ingredients alternately, with milk. Mix well, put 2-3 of this mixture in two layer cake tins. To the remaining 1-3, add two tablespoons cocoa and one tablespoon boiling water. Mix well and put in another layer cake tin. This will be your centre layer.

Filling or Icing: 2 tblsp butter, 1 tblsp. cocoa, 3 tblsp. strong coffee; 2 cups confectioner's sugar; 1 tsp. vanilla. Cream butter. Add sugar and cocoa very slowly. Mix in vanilla and coffee, a little at a time. Beat until fluffy, spread between layers and on top.

We sent a check for $1.00 to Mrs. A. Halder, Box 81, Cherhill, for sharing this unusual recipe with our readers.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

His Grammar Makes Us Wonder How He "Got By."

Dad—How did you come out with your exams?

Son—Passed 'em like they were cars ahead.

Simple Method

Mrs. O'Dooley had twins. They were very like each other; in fact to the casual observer they were identical.

"Faith, Mrs. O'Dooley," said a neighbor to her one day. "I can't make out how it is you can tell them apart."

"Sure, and it's easy enough," was the answer. "Yee see, one has got his teeth and the other hasn't. So I sticks my finger into Pat's mouth, and if he bites I know it's Dennis!"

Cupid's Ally

Fred—I love her, although she isn't pretty. She has that indefinable something—

Jim—Oh, yes, I know. My girl's dad has piles of it, too."

The 4-H Clubs
Youth in Agriculture

The 4-H Club or Junior Farm Club movement in Canada is a nationwide program designed to provide our young farm people with an opportunity to learn by doing, and to demonstrate to others what they have learned with respect to improved practices in agriculture and homemaking. But it has an even more important objective and that is to help rural boys and girls to develop a way of life built on self-help and consideration of the abilities and rights of others. At present, 4-H Club work is helping 65,215 farm boys and girls to develop higher standards in farming, homemaking, community life and citizenship. This work deserves the support of every citizen and organization in Canada.

4-H Membership. Any boy or girl between the ages of 10 to 21 years who agrees to learn to do by doing in some worthwhile activity associated with farming, homemaking, or community improvement may become a 4-H Club member. In each province 4-H Club programs are organized and directed by the Extension Divisions of the Department of Agriculture or University, with assistance from local voluntary rural leaders, the Canada Department of Agriculture and various sponsor organizations.

The 4-H Council. The entire 4-H Club program in Canada is guided and co-ordinated by a national organization known as the "Canadian Council on 4-H Clubs". The Committee's membership includes the Canada and Provincial Departments of Agriculture and a large number of business firms and agricultural organizations. The Line Elevators Farm Service is proud to be a member of the Canadian Council on 4-H Clubs, and to be actively associated with Junior Farm Club work in the three prairie provinces. Today, no farm boy or girl in Western Canada can afford to neglect the opportunity of becoming a 4-H Club member. "Learn to Do by Doing". 4-H Club work will help you to become a better farmer or homemaker, and a better citizen of Canada.

On the way home from Christmas shopping I lost the paper I had bought for gift wrapping. Arriving at the taxi office at midnight to start to work I found some wrapping paper on the boss' desk. I intended to replace it as soon as the stores were open in the morning. I forgot to do this and was sure embarrassed later in the day when the boss' wife asked me if I knew who stole her wrapping paper.

A Sensible Arrangement

We were glad to read last week that neither the Municipal District of Strathcona nor the Edmonton District Planning Commission contemplates a change in plans to build a "satellite" city a few miles southeast of Edmonton city limits.

Any fair-minded person must agree that the Strathcona council plans a most sensible arrangement and solution to the problem of how to school the children of thousands of workers employed in the big industrial plants in the Municipal District.

For years families living in the rural municipality, whose bread-winner worked in the city, had to be educated (and in hard times supported by relief funds) by the ratepayers in the Municipal District. At that time Edmonton never suggested that such families should be brought into the city, to be schooled from tax funds raised in the big shopping and industrial areas of the metropolis.

But since Strathcona itself has gotten a few big industries the city (as well as the towns of Beverly and Jasper Place) have put up a holler. They say it isn't fair for them to educate children whose fathers work outside the city and claim the big industries on the eastern outskirts should be made to pay a share of city school costs.

To meet these reasonable objections, the Municipal District of Strathcona is going to build a city of their own, wherein families of workers can be housed and children educated. Then the general tax rate of the whole municipal district will be levied to pay education costs for these families.

With such a sensible arrangement we can't understand why Edmonton, or Beverly or Jasper Place should raise such a fuss.

Must Wait To Sell Grain

Western grain producers will have to wait until they can sell their grain before they can get cash for it, is the opinion of Hon. C. D. Howe. And Mr. Howe is in a position to know what he's talking about.

To the man who has a lot of unpaid bills and lots of unsold grain, it seems a pretty grim situation if he can't raise some cash in advance by means of a government-backed loan at the bank. Retail merchants, too, feel the pinch when they have to extend prolonged credit to farmer-customers who don't have the cash to meet their current obligations.

Reason for this is that by past experience not enough farmers use the government-backed bank loan to make the arrangement worth while. And usually only the poorer credit risks bothered to borrow money under the scheme—and left quite a few 1951 loans still not paid.

It seems to us that the western grain producer will have to accept the facts of a situation that is likely to occur again year after year. Gone is the day when his crop can be hauled from the field to the town grain elevator and be marketed for immediate cash. No longer can he count on paying a year's accumulated bills at one time in the fall.

From now on the wise farmer will budget his purchases and expenditures in such a way as to pay for them the same way he gets paid for his grain. That is, month by month, because it is now likely that he'll be able to sell his grain on something like a monthly delivery quota.

In that way the farmer will be something like a merchant who lays in a supply of goods at one time of the year and depends upon his gradual, monthly sales to pay his operating expenses as they come along.

Rubber Combine

Five large Canadian rubber companies were found guilty of a breach of the Combines Act and were fined $10,000 apiece. Judge Treleaven of the Ontario supreme court who imposed the fines issued a court order prohibiting a repetition of the offence. The five companies may not appeal the fines but they did indicate they will appeal the order of prohibition. The companies are Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. of Canada; Dominion Rubber Co.; Dunlop Tire and Rubber Co.; Gutta Percha and Rubber Co. and B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. of Canada.

The Legion And The Poppy

For over 25 years The Canadian Legion of the B.E.S.L. has given continuous and unstinted service to Canadian veterans. The Legion's record includes a list of achievements on behalf of ex-servicemen unequalled in the world.

Never content to be solely a social club where veterans may gather and reminisce, the organization has steadfastly forged to the front as a strong influence for veterans' welfare, for the principles of Democracy.

One of the important means by which The Canadian Legion carries out its nation-wide veteran welfare program is the annnual distribution of poppies and poppy wreaths.

Proceeds from this distribution have enabled The Legion to bring immediate and urgently needed relief to untold numbers of veterans and their dependents, and to the orphans and widows of those who died in the service of their country.

The results amply demonstrate the soundness of the project. Throughout the years the Annual Poppy Campaign has received the spontaneous endorsement of leaders in all walks of life.

However, the Canadian Legion Poppy Campaign is rooted in the cities, towns and villages of the nation where 2,000 Legion branches conduct individual campaigns. The organization of the campaign is such that well over half of the total funds raised, remains in those communities for local veteran welfare work, and since all the work is done voluntarily all the profits are reserved for this work.

Any veteran in need—whether or not he is a member of the Legion—is equally eligible to benefit. Buy a Poppy on Poppy Day.

The Poor Relations Of Wealthy Alberta

From the Calgary Herald

The Bank of Montreal, in its excellent annual survey of federal and provincial debt, concisely demonstrates the real source of the financial difficulties encountered by the municipalities of Alberta.

An appendix to the survey presents a comparison between federal, provincial and municipal indebtedness in various forms, one of which shows the debt as a per capita figure. In this list, it appears that the Dominion is now carrying debts equivalent to $1,096 for every man, woman and child in Alberta, that the total provincial debt of all ten provinces amounts to $232 per head and the total municipal debt to $104.

Proportionately, the Alberta government's debt (at $115 per capita) is the third lowest in Canada, after Newfoundland ($40) and Quebec ($91). In actual fact, Alberta's position is even better than this; it has a cash surplus greater than its outstanding debt, so that it may be said in truth to have no debt at all, and on this basis this province has the lowest debt in the country. But the Alberta municipalities face a very different prospect. Proportionately, their debt is the second HIGHEST in the country, at $120 per capita, being exceeded only by the British Columbia municipalities $136 per capita. And what the table doesn't show, of course, is the fact that the Alberta municipalities' debts are increasing sharply, especially in Calgary and Edmonton, so that it is not too much to say that it will be proportionately, the highest in the country within the next year or two.

It is the same old story. The province's position gets better all the time; the cities' position gets worse all the time, and despite the enormous budgetary surpluses which it enjoys every year, the province refuses to do anything effective about it. Mr. Manning talks blissfully about the days when Alberta will be "debt-free," but the concept is a pure illusion; all that has happened is that the province's own debt has been shifted onto the shoulders of the municipalities, so that it can be made to appear that provincial government is in the hands of enlightened and provident men while the municipalities of Alberta chuck their money around like drunken sailors.

Every once in a while, the province is seized by an access of guilty conscience, and passes out a few palliatives; but it shows no sign whatever of recognizing the fundamental nature of the difficulty: a difficulty resulting from the fact that the municipalities are forced by provincial decree to spend money on a great many things (education, for one) which should be primarily a provincial responsibility.

It would be easier to contemplate if the Social Credit government weren't so complacent and so pious about its own righteousness.

MORE TOWN NAMES

Following up Mr. Pue's column on names of Alberta towns, I offer the following information for use in your interesting paper, concerning origin of French names:

Vegreville and Leduc were both named in honor of the first pioneer priest of each place. Duhamel for a visit to Alberta of Archbishop Duhamel of Ottawa.

Lamoureux was named after the first settlers—Joseph and Frank Lamoureux who came there in 1872. Brosseau (on the Saskatchewan River) was named after pioneer Edmond Brosseau who opened the post office there in 1902. Therien, north of St. Paul, honors Father Therien, pioneer priest of the whole St. Paul district.

Grandon, near Lac la Biche Mission is in memory of the first Bishop of St. Albert. Normandeau, also near Lac la Biche, calls to mind Abbe J. A. Normandeau and his two prother pioneers. Bonnyville was named for the first resident priest in 1909.

Grandin, near Lac la Biche Mission to Girouxville (Father Giroux); Falher (Father Falher); Grouard (formerly Little Slave Lake) now named in honor of Bishop Grouard. St. Albert was named by Bishop Tache of St. Boniface in honor of the martyr saint Albert and patron of Father Lacombe.

Donat Gingras, first settler east of Colinton, gave his Christian name to Donatville. Gourin was named by settlers from Nantes and Gourin, in France, who emigrated in 1914. Vimy was named after the famous Battle of Vimy Ridge, where so many Canadian heroes fought and died. Rivierre Qui Barre is from the Indian language meaning "River that blocks the road, crooked, that bars the route."

Castor and Trochu in Southern Alberta honor early French settlers. Fort Normandeau (now Red Deer) was named after Captain Normandeau of the 65th battalion of Riel Rebellion fame. Other early settlers gave their names to Fort Eithier, near Stoney Creek; La-Fond near St. Paul and Foisy, Alberta.

BOB'S HAD ENOUGH

I came up to see Edmonton recently. And boy, was I glad to get home! God bless southern Alberta. Long live Calgary! I will never come to your city again.

CRUEL PARENTS

My blood runs cold when I see and read about the increasing number of parents who mistreat, multilate and even murder their children. Why can't mothers and fathers be as cordial and polite to their children as they are to strangers whom they meet? The money that should be spent on children is spent on beer and cigarettes instead and turns these parents into fiends.

The Bible says in the last days many shall be without natural affection. God help the helpless little children in this terrible age.

My Uncle was walking along the road with his 4-year-old son. My little cousin spied a gopher runing along the ground and then down his tunnel-hole. Peering into the gopher hole he stood still for a moment, then looking up to his Dad said "they turned off their lights and I can't see into their house".

My little sister had scattered some papers all over the floor. Mother told her to sweep them up. Later she saw some papers still on the floor over in the corner. "Why did you leave those papers on the floor?" she demanded. "Because I didn't put them there" was the answer, "they were there yesterday".

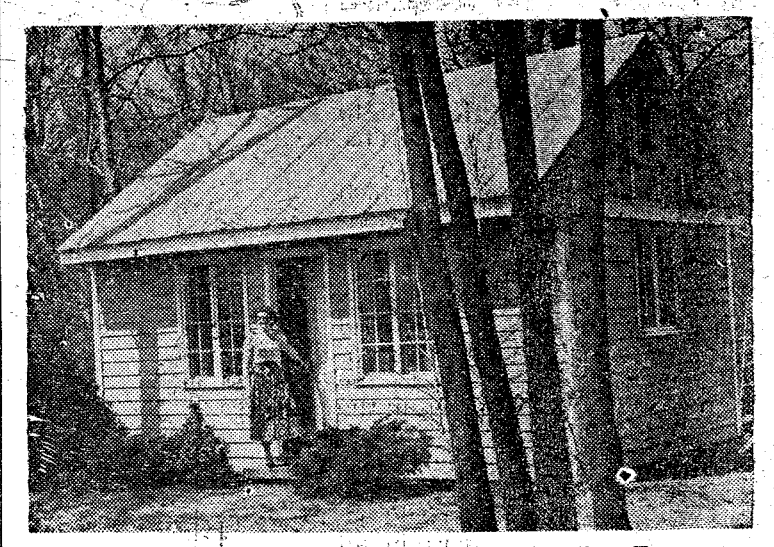
ONE-ROOM HOUSE



(No. 84)

Today there are many uses for "small homes". They make ideal summer cabins, solve the problem of week-end guests, are a source of income and therefore pay for themselves, and may be the perfect "dress house" for young married couples to begin with.

This one-room house contains a combination living-bedroom, an alcove for kitchen and dining, and a bathroom with shower stall, toilet, lavatory and hot water heater.

The pattern contains a complete purchase list of materials, including stock size lumber. It not only tells you in clear English what to buy, but when and where to use each piece, even to the quantity and size of nails. Every step of construction, from digging the foundation trenches to applying the roofing, is described in simple, easy-to-understand, step-by-step directions. No special tools, skill or knowledge of building is required. All construction details are clearly illustrated and numbered. For example, wherever construction calls for making angle cuts as on rafters or gable studs, full-size patterns for making them are provided. The patterns are traced directly on the lumber called for.

Send $1.55 in coin or money order (cheques not acceptable) for One-Room House Pattern No. 84 to Carpentry Dept., P.O. Box 4430, South Edmonton.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Hard-hearted Husband Hunter Wants Widower To Forsake Baby Son.

Dear Louisa:

I am a widower with one child. Just lately I have fallen in love with a fine girl who seems to have all the qualities any man could desire.

She has agreed to marry me on one condition—that I let my child live with his grandparents. Now my boy and I have been very devoted to each other, particularly since the death of his mother, and this would be very hard for both of us.

What would you advise me to do?

YOUNG FATHER

Answer:

My advice to you is to break off with this young woman as soon as possible, and thank your stars that you escaped being tied for life to anyone so selfish and heartless.

Any woman who will try to separate a lonely little boy from his single parent is hard-hearted indeed. If she loved you very much, she would be anxious to mother your little son knowing how happy such a course would make you and feeling a natural sympathy for a motherless little boy.

Yours,
LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I am a girl of nineteen and here's my problem. I have fallen in love with a boy my own age, but I'm quite sure he doesn't know it. I've known him for several years, but we very seldom go out together. I've gone out with a lot of other boys but somehow I can't seem to enjoy myself. I'm always thinking of this boy. Do you think it would be better for me to leave this place and go somewhere else so that I can forget him or should I stay here and worry if he cares any for me?

Please help me.

WORRIED
Alta.

Answer:

At 19 you may be mature enough to know for sure the kind of man you want to marry. And then on the other hand you may not. It's a cinch the object of your affection is either too shy or not aware of any feelings of love for you or he'd be making the advances you desire for his friendship.

I think you should announce you are going away for a while and have your folks stage a farewell party to which he should be invited.

This should give you an opportunity to find out how he feels about it and when you're away it will either be a case of "absence makes the heart grow fonder" or he and you will forget each other when it is "out of sight, out of mind."

Just remember though. Worried that outside your limited circle of friends there are hundreds of other unmarried young men your age. And I wouldn't be surprised if, when you're away from home, you'll fall in love with somebody else and you may find your affection with this local yokel is only a brief infatuation.

Ottawa Citizen Starts "Weekend"

OTTAWA—The circulation war between Ottawa's two daily English language newspapers raging now for almost a month has taken a new turn.

The Ottawa Citizen battling with The Journal for top-dog spot in Ottawa's newspaper field announced it will soon add Week-end Picture Magazine on Saturdays.

In a full page ad in The Financil Post The Citizen announced it would publish Week-end from January 16 on, along with 20 other "leading Canadian newspapers" including The Albertan.

The Citizen's full-page ad in this week's Financial Post was two-fold in its aim.

At the moment The Journal is about 5,000 ahead of The Citizen in circulation, with The Journal standing at about 60,000 per day.

Miss L. Bakay Weds In Lovely Fall Ceremony

CRAIGEND — A lovely wedding was solemnized at the Ukrainian Orthodox Church at Craigend, when Miss Loveth Bakay became the bride of John Beniuk. The bride was attired in a full length white gown of French lace over satin with a Queen Ann collar and a three-quarter veil caught in a sweetheart coronet of seed pearls. She wore a corsage of red roses, and carried a bouquet of red and white roses. She was assisted by Miss Olga Bakay in a gown of turquoise and matching coronet as maid of honor., and the Misses Olga Osadchuk of Edmonton, wearing a Nile green gown, Vicy Warawa gowned in yellow, and Vicky Bereska in powder blue, as bridesmaids.

The groom was assisted by Albert Hapner as best man, and the attendants Alex Kowalchuk, cousin of the bride, John Wowk, cousin of the groom and Ernest Lachowick.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Greeting the guests, Mrs. Bakay was dressed in a grey suit with matching accessories with a corsage of coral pink roses. About two hundred guests attended the reception and the dance in the evening at the Craigend Hall.

Variety Of Costumes Seen At Dance

LAC LA BICHE — The annual Hallowe'en costume dance was held on Oct. 30, a day ahead of time, thus giving the participants ample opportunity to be on hand to greet the witches and goblins in the wee hours of the morning. An enthusiastic crowd attended, even though only a small number were costumed. The ones who went out for the Halowe'en spirit not only enjoyed themselves but did a good job of entertaining the others. Bears, rabbits, eagles, clowns, Indian maids, funny men and numerous other garb added to the fun of the occasion and the guesswork of who was under that mask.

The judges, Mr. J. Stewart, Mrs. A. Proctor and Mrs. F. McIntyre, had a difficult time deciding who was the most deserving and finally awarded the prizes to: Ladies, Mrs. Breau, Mrs. R. Rizzolli, and Miss Lucille Tatum; gents, H. Erickson, L. Kolstad and E. Coutney.

As the committee now points out, it was indeed a shame not to avail themselves of the opportunity that Mr. Erickson represented. Garbed as the Robin Hood of old, Mr. Erickson not only portrayed the part well but could quite ably have shown the same skill and marksmanship that made Robin Hood famous. You will recall that Mr. Erickson is the same who has on numerous occasions came home with the laurels of different archery tournaments.

Manning Predicts Natural Gas To Be As Important As Oil

EDMONTON (BUP)—Premier E. C. Manning has predicted that natural gas will soon play as important a role in Alberta's economy as oil does now.

"There are indications that within a few years' time natural gas development may place it on a parallel with oil," Manning told the convention of the Associated Hospitals of Alberta at Edmonton.

Terming charges that export of gas would keep industry away from Alberta as a "complete misunderstanding" Manning said industries will still locate as close as possible to the source of gas in order to obtain it cheaply.

In addition, he said, the province has the right to extract all chemical gasses, leaving only residual fuel gas for export.

Manning said that now Alberta is able to meet its own requirements, surplus gas must be exported as soon as possible to speed the development of petro-chemical industries in Alberta.

The premier said the Alberta government has received $225,000,000 in revenue from the oil industry since 1947.

New Standard in all-round usefulness
The Allis-Chalmers Rear-Engine Model G does all the usual field jobs . . . plus many others that regular farm tractors are not designed for. Here's truly a new standard in usefulness.
Look at these features: Engine in the rear; more weight on drive wheels for better traction. All implements front-mounted, clearly in view of operator. Large assortment of quick-hitch implements to choose from.
In addition to general work, the creeper gear and tools-in-front design make the Model G ideal for truck crops, strawberries, and all types of farming where power tools must work with the precision and skill of a hand hoe.
We'll be glad to demonstrate.

Experts To Study "Problem Drinking"

OTTAWA (BUP) — Plans for a top-level conference of national and international experts designed to focus attention on a steady increase of problem drinking in Canada were drawn up here.

The gathering, first of its kind to be held here, will be held in the national research council building Oct. 30 and 31, under the auspices of the Ontario Alcoholism Research Foundation. Officials of the national research council, the federal department of health and welfare, and international experts on alcoholics' problems will attend.

Jasper Place Gets Police Magistrate

EDMONTON (BUP) — The attorney-general's office announced the appointment of RCMP Inspector George H. Clark as police magistrate for Jasper Place.

Inspector Clark will fill the vacancy left by the death of Town Magistrate Cunningham in August.

A native of New Brunswick, Clark moved to western Canada in 1903 and joined the RCMP after 28 years service with the B.C. provincial police.

Quite a Mistake

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — W. C. Boosman lost his pet pointer dog, Queenie and advertised in the newspaper for her, offering $15 to her finder. By mistake, the ad stated the reward to be $1,500. Boosman received a flood of replies to his ad—more than 300 dogs, brought by scores of people. He didn't have to pay even $15, however, because he found Queenie himself.

Runaway Coal Cars Pin, Crush Miner

LETHBRIDGE (BUP) — A Shaughnessy miner, William Loula, 45, was seriously injured in an accident at the Lethbridge Collieries Standard mine Thursday last.

After preliminary investigation, police said a cable linking a string of loaded coal cars broke and the cars rolled down an incline, pinning Loula against a pit drop. He suffered a fractured skull, extensive lacerations to his face and head, and severe lacerations to his right arms and leg. He is in Galt hospital.

Purchasing Agent Dies In Edmonton

EDMONTON (BUP)—Ernest A. Marples, purchasing agent for the CNR here for 38 years, died last Wednesday. He was 58.

A native of Winnipeg Marples moved here 20 years ago, and was a keen sports enthusiast. He is survived by his widow and two sons.

The U.S. expects the early implementation of the European army.

Health Unit Notes

FATIGUE CAN BE HEALTHY OR SERVE AS A WARNING

FOUR KINDS OF FATIGUE

"Physical fatigue is healthy fatigue. The body needs such stimulation, and fatigue from physical work seldom is dangerous.

Fatigue caused by mental work is more harmful baceuse it usually involves no physical activity with accompanying stimulation of circulation, and must therefore be carefully handled for recuperation.

"Emotional fatigue, the third form of tiredness, is generally recognized as the most harmful form of fatigue because it alters glandular activities of the body and makes it difficult to obtain relaxation or sleep for real restoration of well-being. It may arise from severe fright or anger. Or it may arise, and does more usually, from temperamental disturbances."

To these three forms of fatigue should probably be added a fourth —the fatigue that cannot be accounted for or explained away. Such fatigue may be a warning signal of danger ahead. Disturbances of the thyroid gland often cause undue fatigue. Certain focal infections such as result from bad teeth, tonsils and nasal conditions, cause fatigue. One of the common symptoms of early tuberculosis is tiredness without apparent cause. Any abnormal tiredness should prompt one to visit the doctor and to let him decide the cause of the fatigue.

RELAXATION

We cannot afford to go to bed whenever a feeling of tiredness comes over us. But we can during the day frequently relax, let go, stretch out and thus give the body a chance to catch up on its energy debt. One high school has provided lounging rooms for those of its students who need rest occassionally from the strain of school work. Students who have recently had a serious illness, those who are not up to par in health and those who tire easily make use of these special rooms, under the supervision of trained health counsellors. A busy doctor states that when patients crowd his office, he manages to relax physically and mentally a few minutes between each consultation and that enables him to get through hours of taxing concentration without exhaustion.

Mind and body cannot be separated, hence any tenseness of one affects the other. "At ease" is a good old army phrase which means just that. It is the opposite of "attention!" Being at ease dotes not mean a sloppy, sleepy attitude, but one of composure without strain. To learn to do a task without tenseness helps to prevent fatigue and results in better work. The musician who is tense gives a "stiff performance. The public speaker who is tense "cramps his style." A boy who stuttered hopelessly in the classroom was taught by his patient teacher to relax—to be calm and oblivious to the class before beginning to recite. Improvement in speaking clearly and evenly was remarkable in a short time.

NEW SERIES OF "SEARCH FOR TALENT" SHOWS STARTS IN NOVEMBER

The A.C.T. - CFRN "Search For Talent" shows will begin their seventh season of activity with the opening show, to be held in Legal, on Saturday, November 7th.

Jack Dennistoun, producer and director, for the past three years of the professional acts, will this year present another fun-filled variety show. George Kidd, CFRN announcer will be master of ceremonies.

Included in the variety cast, are Carls Elgstrand, accordionist; Roy MacDonald, tap dancing and tumbling; Allan and Ulla Douglas, comedians and vocalists, and Walter Melnyk, comedian and monologist.

Carl Elgstrand is a new member of the cast this year, and formerly travelled with service entertainment groups during the war. All other members of the cast are familiar to audiences from last year's series.

Proceeds from the show are used by the Associated Canadian Travellers for the Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund.

Arrangements have been completed for the following series of shows. The troup will start Saturday, November 7th, at Legal, and visit Forestburg, November 14th; Thorhild November 21st; Millet, November 28th; Wildwood, December 5th; and Sangudo, December 12th.

CFRN will again sponsor the CFRN Banff School Of Fine Arts Scholarship. All contestants appearing on the shows are automatically eligible for the scholarship.

Alberta Launches Tourist Campaign

EDMONTON (BUP) — Alberta is launching a campaign to attract more fall tourists and extend the tourist season into autumn, according to Edward Bryant of the provincial department of economic affairs.

Speaking to the Edmonton Lions Club, Bryant said "publicity films are being distributed throughout the United States aimed at encouraging tourists to spend fall vacations in Alberta."

Two of the films already being distributed are "Gift of the Glacier" and "Skyline Trails."

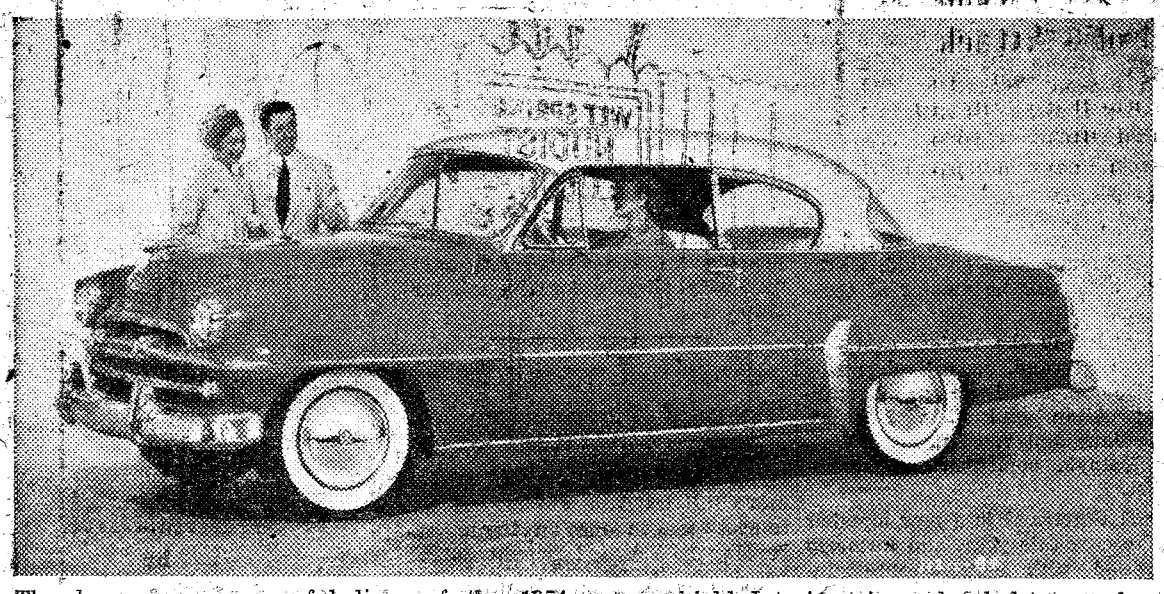
THE BELVEDERE IS STYLE LEADER OF 1954 PLYMOUTHS



The longer, more graceful lines of the 1954 Plymouth Belvedere hard top shown above are accentuated by the increased use of new chrome trim throughout the entire length of the car. Fresh styling is also evident in the extended chrome headlights and the redesigned, brighter grille. The centre bar of the grille sweeps out and along the side of the car cutting through a perpendicular stone shield. Interior trim and upholstery makes full use of the latest vinyl materials and nylon and rayon fabrics to achieve complete colour and design harmony with the car's exterior. Plymouths for 1954 are available in three series: the practical Plaza, the distinctive Savoy and the style leader Belvedere.

SWEEPING NEW LINES ADD COMFORT TO RIDING QUALITIES OF PLYMOUTH

"Longer and more beautifully styled on the outside, the new Plymouths for 1954 carry the modern styling to the passengers inside with harmonizing interior appointments", said John C. McGuire, General Sales Manager of the Chrysler - Plymouth - Fargo Division of Chrysler Corporation of Canada Limited, in announcing that the new Plymouths are now on display in Chrysler-Plymouth showrooms across Canada. "Moreover," he added, "the sweeping new lines have been achieved without sacrificing any of the fine riding qualities for which Plymouth has always been known."

Plymouth interiors this year take advantage of the versatility of new nylon, rayon, and vinyl materials to offer two-tone color combinations skillfully matched to the car's exterior color. Seat backs have a 6½" pleated design carrying out the more luxurious styling found in the 1954 Plymouths. A special feature on two door models is the division of the front at one-third its width. The convenient seat division allows two people to sit comfortably in the front seat while rear seat passengers enter or leave the car.

The 1954 Plymouths again offer the public a choice of three complete series—the luxurious Belvedere, the distinguished Savoy and the practical Plaza. All are powered by Plymouth's 108 h.p. engine with a high compression ratio of 7.0 to 1. "Mounted on a cushion of live rubber," Mr. McGuire added, "the engine gives quiet and vibration free performance."

Another important feature is Plymouth's Balanced Ride. A low centre of gravity and wide rear springs balance the car against roll on turns. Synchronized springing and unique weight distribution offset any pitch movement. Contributing to this even ride, Plymouth's Oriflow Shock Absorbers have been further refined to improve performance. Added ease in riding and handling is also obtained through Plymouth's shockproof steering system.

Advanced mechanical engineering, according to Mr. McGuire, is carried through every part of the 1954 Plymouth, and the many special features contributing to trouble-free and safe driving have been retained. Plymouth's Safeguard Brakes provide two brake cylinders in each front wheel to handle the extra weight thrown forward when a car stops suddenly. "This is an important safety factor", Mr. McGuire said, "in an age of fast traffic". Safety Rim Wheels, another exclusively Chrysler-engineered feature, give added protection to passengers. Even in blowouts, the tire is held firmly to the rim until the car can be stopped.

An Oilite fuel filter located in the gas tank keeps dirt and water from entering the fuel lines and eliminates any formation of ice in the lines in winter. Again this year, Control Tower Visibility is an important factor in contributing to safe driving. The wide curved windshield has been optically designed to minimize reflections and gives the driver an unrestricted view of the road ahead.

More options are available on Plymouth this year than ever before. As an aid to "no-shift" driving, Hy-Drive can be installed. This permits all normal driving to be done without the need of changing 30 per cent more slowly at cruising speeds is an important economy feature available on all Plymouths.

This year, a new option is offered on Plymouth. It is the Plymouth Full Power Steering. Hydraulic power does 5/6th of the driver's steering work. On the job all the time while the engine is running, it not only makes driving easier, it is also an important safety feature.

Of the Plymouth's three lines, the Belvederes is the "luxury" model with special styling and interior trim. It is available in a 4-door sedan, a special hard top club coupe and a convertible.

The middle-line Savoy features a 4-door sedan, a club coupe, a 2-door sedan and a suburban.

The 1954 Plaza is a practical low-priced model and is available as a 4-door sedan, a 2-door sedan, a club coupe, and a suburban model.

1954 Dairy Convention Will Be Held In Edmonton

Alberta dairymen are reminded that the 1954 Convention will be held in the Macdonald Hotel, Edmonton, February 2nd, 3rd and 4th. Word has been received from Dr. E. W. Crampton, Professor of Nutrition, MacDonald College, Quebec, that he will accept the Dairymen's Association invitation to appear as guest speaker. It is planned that he will address the general session on the research project undertaken on butterfat at that Institution. He will also address the Producers and Cattle Breeders on up-to-date information dealing with dairy cattle feeding.

The 1954 Convention dates shown on the cover of the 1953 Dairy Plant and Product Competition books is in error and should have read February, 2nd, 3rd and 4th, 1954.

Farm Surplus Program Of U.S. Worries Canada

OTTAWA — The United States farm surplus disposal program has Canada a little worried but so far it has not endangered Canadian exports, federal officials said today.

The latest move which brought some concern here was the disclosure that Britain, traditionally Canada's major food market, is negotiating with the U.S. to buy some American surpluses for sterling.

A London dispatch said that grain, fats, butter, meat and meat products have been mentioned as being available.

The U.S. has huge food surpluses and it has been authorized by Congress to accept as payment sterling or francs. Britain and other countries must pay in dollars for Canadian goods.

Officials here observed, however, that the American disposal program calls for shipment of the surpluses through channels that will not disrupt trade between friendly countries. It also bars "dumping" of the surpluses in importing countries at rock-bottom prices.

But there is some question here of how the Americans will interpret "dumping" and what final steps will be taken to unload the big American food stockpile.

One official said there have been reports that Britain may buy American apples and tobacco under the plan, but there now are doubts that the U.W. will do so.

The big question here is: Will the U.S. go so far as to sell surplus wheat under this program? That might mean a major shift of British wheat-buying to the U.S. from Canada.

"If the U.S. decides to give away or dump wheat under this program, accepting sterling, it is almost certain she won't be able to sell wheat for dollars after that,' an official said.

ARMISTICE DAY – WAR HEROES

By (Mrs.) CHARLOTTE WARD, Perryvale, Alberta

Today we are reminded once again of those
Who sacrificed their lives, and lie in calm repose
To await the call to that new endless life
When war shall be no more, nor sorrow, pain, and strife.
Memory fades not from those who were Warriors
And saw comrades fall on the cold battle ground;
Nor from those who are sorrowing the loss of a dear one,
May God's loving mercy on these be profound.

Celestial comfort, Lord, we pray wilt Thou bestow
On shattered minds, and on the blind, the maimed, the low.
May not the world withhold a helping hand
To all who suffered horrors in war-stricken lands.
Memory fades not from those who were Warriors,
And saw comrades fall on the cold battle ground;
Nor from those who were orphaned, or bereft of a dear one.
May the Father in heaven shower on them love profound.

Calgary To Have Drive-in Store; First In Canada

CALGARY (BUP) — The first drive-in retail store in Canada is expected to be in operation here next July.

Vincent Jacques, proprietor of the Chesterfield Shop, announced he will open a drive-in furniture store designed "to beat our terrific downtown parking problem."

Jacques said the only retail drive-in store in North America is in Phoenix, Ariz.

He said his building will have a 50-foot frontage and a depth of 115 feet. There will be parking space at the rear. He estimated his renovating costs at $15,000,000.

The driveway will run from front to back through the store and will accommodate eight cars at one time. Attendants will be on hand to park the cars at the rear of the store if the customers wish.

The doors of the building will be insulated for winter conditions and will be electrically operated.

Jacques said that although the store is essentially designed to meet the parking problem, "there is also a safety angle."

"Parents can leave their young children in the cars," he said, "with much greater safety than if they were on the street."

Jacques said the front of the store will be finished in a combination of masonite and aluminum with neon lighting and tapestry brick. One large display window will be situated at the right of the door.

Manning's Gas Talks 'Entirely Satisfactory'

EDMONTON (CP) — Premier Manning just returned from gas and oil conferences with Prime Minister St. Laurent said Thursday he will return to Ottawa for further talks after the province's conservation board reports on exportable reserves of Alberta natural gas.

Mr. Manning said the board's report probably will be made to his cabinet in three or four weeks.

The premier said his "entirely satisfactory" meetings with Mr. St. Laurent covered the whole field of development and use of the province's gas and oil.

He said they conferred not only on possible routes and development of natural gas pipelines but also on the "over-all project" of gas and oil export pipelines and resources development.

Lamport Urges "Sweep" To Support Hospitals

TORONTO (BUP)—Civic sweepstakes, similar to the "Irish Sweep," were urged here by Mayor Allan Lamport, who estimated they would yield $10,000,000 to $20,000,000 for Toronto hospitals

"It would only mean transferring our generosity from Irish hospitals to our own," he said.

There is no legislation on the books permitting lotteries, but some sources believed an amendment to the criminal code making them possible would be studied at the next session of parliament.

Lamport said he would stand squarely behind a motion he made as controller in June 1950, urging sweepstakes in aid of hospitals.

Lamport said he had no use for lotteries as straight gambling, "but for the care of the sick. I'm in favor of them.'

"We could hold two a year to begin with,' he said. "One at the Woodbine racetrack here, and one at Long Branch. If they were satisfactory we could increase the number to four a year and one in each season."

Okotoks Girl Wins Lamb Competition

Dorothy Hebson, 13, of Okotoks, won the junior section of the lamb trimming competition staged at the Edmonton Fall Livestock Show Tuesday for junior exhibitors. It was the fifth consecutive time she has topped the contest.

Walter Currie of Viking was runner-up and Joan Clennett of Mannville third prize winner. Alister Squair of Legal topped the senior section of the contest, Don and Ervin Currie came next.

Winners of the market lamb feeding, fitting and exhibiting competition were headed by Ervin, Walter and Don Currie, with Joan Clennett in fourth place.

Hugh Wyllie of Leduc showed the first prize bacon hog fitted by a junior. W. Meakin and Stuart Meakin of Alcomdale won second and fourth prizes, L. and Margaret Rowe of Duffield, third and fifth.

Hearty Breakfast Adds Zip To Your Day

By JOYCE McCUTCHEON
District Home Economist

Are you a breakfast skipper? Perhaps a slice of toast and a cup of coffee is your idea of a speedy breakfast. Stop and think. Breakfast is an important meal for all the family. Without an adequate breakfast, you'll have that droopy mid-morning feeling. Poor breakfast habits lead to malnutrition and overweight. Your body cannot function without fuel. Eating breakfast is a wonderful habit. There is always time for a good nutritious "first meal." An adequate breakfast consists of fruit or juice, a bowl of cereal, milk, bread of some kind and butter. This menu pattern can be varied in many ways. Try stuffed baked apples for a change. These can be prepared the night before and served for breakfast with milk or cream. There are many varieties of ready-to-serve cereals but don't overlook those hot oatmeal or whole-wheat cereals. Top cereal with sliced fruit, brown sugar and milk. Don't resort to the standard toast breakfast but try a delicious coffee cake or hot biscuits for a welcome change. Rely on advance preparation the day before to save time. Set the breakfast table the night before; prepare fruit; set fruit juices in the refrigerator to chill; take eggs out of the refrigerator the night before; arrange bacon in a pan for cooking; mix dry ingredients for pancakes, muffins or biscuits. Cooked cereal can be partially cooked the night before in the top of a double-boiler. There are many suggested menus and outlines of preparations.

HOW LONG HAS IT BEEN since your watch had a checkup? A year? Or two? Or can't you even remember?

Well, here's a tip from our watch service expert on the care and feeding of your timepiece—whatever its make or model.

Your watch, he says, really takes a tougher beating than your automobile. It goes—and goes constantly—24 hours a day. In fact, with proper care, a jeweled-lever watch could serve you for the incredible equivalent of 90,000 miles.

That's why, when our watch service expert suggests you let him check up on your watch—it's really a tribute to your watch! (For what other machine will run at full speed day in and day out without a checkup?) And the short time he spends inspecting your watch today may save you big money by heading off future "time off."

So make it a point, won't you, to drop by for a watch checkup. Should any work need to be done, you can be sure we use only genuine factory replacement parts from Switzerland.

And naturally—all our work is guaranteed!

Halfbreed To Hang January 26 For Murder Of Northern Trapper

PEACE RIVER, Alta. (BUP)—Halfbreed A. Alfred, 23, will hang January 26 for the murder of trapper George Craig at a lonely Peace River district trapline cabin last March.

Alfred, also accused of the killing of a second man, Harold Sherris, was found guilty by a six-man jury which deliberated 90 minutes before returning its verdict at the Peace River court house.

Indicted only for Craig's murder, Alfred will be hanged at the Fort Saskatchewan provincial jail near Edmonton.

The halfbreed was convicted largely on a statement which he made to police shortly after his arrest in which he admitted shooting Craig and Sherris and then setting fire to their cabin.

A day-long legal battle over the admissability of the statement broke Wednesday when Mr. Justice E. D. Wilson ruled that it should be admitted as evidence.

The three-way trial, which included night sittings, drew a packed gallery as the jury of loggers and farmers was ordered from the courtroom three times during the trial.

Alfred was arrested last April for robbing a bank at nearby Grimshaw and sentenced to two years.

In his statement Alfred said he shot Craig and Sherris because Sherris threatened him. After killing the pair, he set fire to their cabin and watched it burn in the spring evening before departing.

Craig's unrecognizable body was found in the ruins of the cabin, and Sherris' body was uncovered under a layer of moss and snow about a mile away. Alfred had buried the body in the frozen muskeg beside a trail hacked out by oil survey crews.
